

KENTUCKY CBC DATA FORM, 2022–2023

Please fill in all blanks carefully, completely, and neatly. Thank you.

Count name (and/or Section name): _____

Count Date: _____

Start time: _____ AM to _____ PM Feeder watchers: _____ (_____ hours)

Number of observers: _____ Number of parties (daylight) – minimum: _____ maximum: _____

Total party-hours _____ (_____ on foot, _____ by car, _____ by horse and buggy, _____ by boat).

Total party-miles _____ (_____ on foot, _____ by car, _____ by horse and buggy, _____ by boat).

Owling hours _____, Owling miles _____. Total species _____; total individuals _____.

Weather: Temperature _____°F to _____°F Wind (direction and speed): _____

Weather comments: snow depth, still water and moving water condition (extent frozen) _____

Cloud cover: AM _____, PM _____

Select all conditions existing during the morning.

AM Rain: None Light Heavy Unknown

AM Snow: None Light Heavy Unknown

Select all conditions existing during the afternoon.

PM Rain: None Light Heavy Unknown

PM Snow: None Light Heavy Unknown

Species seen in area during the count period but not on count day:

Observers (in alphabetical order):	Email address:	Hometown (city, state)
1. _____	_____	_____
2. _____	_____	_____
3. _____	_____	_____
4. _____	_____	_____
5. _____	_____	_____
6. _____	_____	_____
7. _____	_____	_____
8. _____	_____	_____
9. _____	_____	_____
10. _____	_____	_____

KENTUCKY CBC DATA FORM, 2022–2023

Additional comments (please include a short paragraph on the highlights of your count day):

Compilers: Please include the above sentences in the “Special Aspects” page in the data entry portal.

Christmas Bird Count dates: December 14, 2022 through January 5, 2023. Please complete data entry no later than 10 days after your CBC, but absolutely by January 15, 2023. Contact me with questions or comments via email (preferably) to james.a.wheat@gmail.com, or mail to James Wheat, 600 Bluffview Drive, Taylorsville KY 40071.